For cancellations from 30 to 0 days before the start, a fee of 50% of the participation price will be charged. Please note that the cancellation policies of your accommodation may differ from the conditions listed here. Accommodation cancellation must be handled by the participant themselves.

Important notes:

All hikes mainly follow marked paths and trails, some in alpine terrain. A certain level of basic fitness, endurance, sure-footedness, and good physical health are prerequisites for undertaking these hikes. The intake of medication must be discussed with your doctor. Appropriate equipment, suitable clothing, and especially sturdy, ankle-high footwear are essential. Hiking poles can be beneficial. For the Fennberg via ferrata, we provide the necessary equipment. The hiking guide/mountain guide is responsible for route guidance but not for the personal safety of the participants. Any participant who separates from the group does so at their own risk. The hiking guide/mountain guide cannot be held responsible.

I also agree that photos taken during the AUTUMN HIKING DAYS, in which I appear, may be used by the Tramin Tourism Association for promotional purposes. I hereby give my explicit consent to the Tramin Tourism Association for the processing of the data I have provided, including in particular my name, address, services used, related correspondence, date of birth, gender, nationality, country of birth, any known intolerances or other health data.

Please register no later than three weeks before the start of the hiking week. The Tourism Association reserves the right to cancel the hiking week if less than 10 people are registered two weeks before the registration deadline.
