Whether with friends, family, or simply as a spectator, there's entertainment for all. Food and refreshments will be available, and the festive music will keep everyone dancing. An evening full of fun, socializing, and good spirits—celebrating the most festive time of the year.

Tuesday, February 17

→ CHILDREN'S EGETMANN PARADE

1 PM. On Shrove Tuesday, February 17, 2026, Tramin will once again shine in the colorful splendor of the Children's Egetmann Parade—one of the oldest and most fascinating Carnival traditions in the Alpine region, dedicated in even-numbered years specifically to the young people of Tramin. This parade is a miniature version of the grand Egetmann procession and offers a unique insight into the traditional Carnival season. The children take on the roles of the adults: trumpeters, Ausschnöller, Ausmesser, and Wegmacher lead the procession, followed by the Schnappviecher and the magnificent wedding carriages of Egetmann-Hansl. Additional colorful floats, including those of the bakery, the smithy, and the famous Altweibermühle, complete the vibrant spectacle.

→ END OF CARNIVAL

6:00 PM. At the end of the Carnival season, Tramin invites everyone to the traditional Carnival farewell in the town center. Amid music, dance, and cheer, we bid farewell to Carnival before returning to everyday life. Colorful costumes, a joyful atmosphere, and conviviality make this evening a festive conclusion to the fifth season of the year. Residents and visitors alike are invited to enjoy the Carnival spirit one last time.
